Supply Chain: The supply chain is all of the steps involved in making a product and delivering it to the customer.

Raw Materials

Raw materials are used to make products. Producers of raw materials make a profit by selling them to manufacturers.

Manufacturers

Manufacturers take raw materials or existing products and develop a new product. Manufacturers make a profit by selling these products directly to individuals, other companies, or wholesalers.

Wholesalers

Wholesalers purchase products from manufacturers in large quantities and then sell them to retailers or directly to consumers in smaller quantities. Wholesalers make a profit by increasing the price of the product from its initial purchase price.

Retailer

Retailers purchase products from the manufacturers or wholesalers and then sell them to other companies and consumers. Retailers make a profit by again increasing the price of the product from its initial purchase price.

Service Provider

Service providers sell services to consumers. Service providers often facilitate the sale, exchange, and distribution of products between different steps of the supply chain.
